CIRCABILITY – EveryBodyCircus stands for...

- Reducing prejudices
 - Overcoming new challenges
 - Leaving our personal comfort zones
 - Overcoming physical, linguistic and social boundaries
 - Working together in a group
 - Communication through movement

You already have previous experience and enjoy exercise (dance, sport...) and would like to...

- Experiment with your creativity
- get a taste for the world of contemporary circus
- exchange ideas with other young people and circus artists in a safe environment and create something new
- overcome your own limits and discover your personal potential

Our CIRCABILITY project is the right place for you!

Our common language will be English!
